By Telegraph to THE TIMES.

BOSTON, Aug. 27.—Seven hundred and fifty thousand people saw the parade of 25,000 Knights Templar today, and pronounced it the grandest pageant ever witnessed in Boston. The parade started at 10:55. The first few divisions were mainly of Massachusetts and New England Knights. In the Seventh division the Ohio and Kentucky members appeared. John A. Warner, grand commander of Ohio, was the chief of this division and was attended by James Pettibone and seven aides. The police arrangements were perfect. No traffic was allowed on the line of parade. The music of a hundred bands, the applause of thousands of people, the gay uniforms and emblems added to the inspiring spectacle.

Requera is a lawyer of great promise and a sugar planter of much wealth. THREE MEN SHOT.

A Strike at Wapakoneta This Afternoon Ends in a Riot.

The Leader, a Former Coxeyite, and Participant in Chicago Riots, Injured.

A Presumptive Strike at Lima—A Bloody Battle Between Enemies in Tennessee—An Old Feud—A Stranger's Horrible Crime—Fire in a Railroad Tunnel—Various Crimes and Disturbances.

By Telegraph to THE TIMES.

WAPAKONETA, Aug. 26—The strike here on the water works trenches developed in a tragedy this afternoon. Three men, Joshua Tiller, of Pittsburg, Albert Seifert and Oscar Voorhees, of this place, were shot, Tiller through the bowels, Seifert through the arm and the latter through the hand. Tiller will die. Yesterday morning the men went on a strike and declared that no one should go to work until their demands were satisfied.

The trustees and contractor ordered Lewis Vauskiver and another party to fill some of the trenches and cover some pipe in the Second ward. They began to work, and a crowd of strikers congregated and commenced beating Vauskiver over the head with clubs and shovel handles. He drew a revolver and fired into his assailants three times with above results. Several of the participants have been arrested. Dr. John Nichols says that the ball passed entirely through Tillers' intestines, and that he only has a few hours to live. Tillers was apparently the leader of the strike, and was with Coxey on his march and in the Chicago riots.

THERE are about 50,000 positions under the civil service law, and about 39,000 of these have been appointed under its rules.

IT IS estimated that Americans will spend at least $100,000,000 in Europe this year. To this fact is due the exporting of gold.

THE manufacturing output of Georgia has increased from $40,000,000 to $75,000,000 in the last ten years, and in addition to this she ships north $90,000,000 of raw products.

HAS the time not come when the Cubans should be recognized as belligerents by this country. She is fighting to throw off a galling yoke. She is making the same struggle for freedom that Americans made in 1776.

FOR eighteen years the Democrats of Ohio have carried the legislature each year and elected a United States senator. Why not this year? Besides, "Jimmy" Campbell will give Boss Cox a lively tussle if he lands his man Bushnell.

The removal of the John Brown engine house to Chicago was a financial failure, and the structure is now in the hands of the sheriff. A contract has just been signed to have it returned to its original site. In the future historic sights may not be destroyed in an effort to get rich off the curiosity of the people.

THE Olympic games will be restored in Greece, but instead of taking place at Olympia they will occur at Athens, and will be celebrated next spring. The use of the war chariot will be abandoned, and since electricity will light up the acropolis, bicycle races might be made to take the place of the chariot races.

FITZSIMMONS has fought over 300 battles and has never been whipped. "Gentleman Jim" will find in him a foe worthy of his steel, and most people are longing to see Fitz put "Jim" to sleep. At least it might bring him to a realization of the fact that he is not so much the idol of the people that they will overlook his ruffiianism.

"THE charge that Mr. Campbell has been 'hired' or 'retained' by Mr. Brice to run for governor," says the Washington Post, "is one the Republican newspapers ought to be ashamed to make." Never mind. The Buckeye Republican leaders are scared white over the nomination of the brave, brilliant and popular Jimmy Campbell. They don't appear to have at all the confidence which that 137,000 majority last year would seem to call for.—Wheeling Register.

THE "Dry Goods Economist," a trade journal of high standing, writing of the past week reports the Philadelphia mills as "experiencing a growing strength in the demand for goods. They have been able to secure better prices than a week ago." The labor troubles have disappeared, and there are indications of great prosperity. It further says: "The big business among the jobbing houses continues and the glut in the shipping houses is as large as ever. All sections of the country send large orders." Distant purchasers have completed their fall orders, and trade has commenced with nearby dealers. It is difficult to discover in any part of the Union any trace of business uneasiness. The late calamity howlers are the only dealers in the dumps. There is no demand for their specialty.

THE industries of the south are booming. The vice-president of the Seaboard railroad, which operates about 1,000 miles, from Norfolk to Atlanta, gives a cheering account of the outlook. "Last year," he says, "a great North Carolina manufacturing concern spent $100,000 in advertising, and the results were so satisfactory that it has increased its advertising fund for this year to $250,000." Advertising tells the story of prosperous business north and south. The Atlanta "Constitution" says that only a few days ago a firm at Anniston, Ala., secured a contract for 30,000 tons of cast iron pipe for Yokohama, Japan, the largest contract ever made by an American firm for foreign shipment. During the late business depression, the "Constitution" adds, the southern cotton mills have all run on full time, without reducing wages, and their dividends have ranged from 15 to 60 per cent. and in one instance to 80. Twenty years ago the annual output of goods manufactured in Georgia was worth less than $11,000,000; 10 years ago it was $40,000,000; today it is nearly $75,000,000.

"OUR manufacturers are busy," says the American Wool and Cotton Reporter, "many of them running overtime on orders, and prices realized, on the whole, show an advance over those of last year. Profits are still moderate, it is true, but the whole situation is improved, and wage earners have received in the majority of instances, a fair share of the benefits accruing from the change in the condition of things. Our manufacturers as well as wage earners are doing comparatively well, and," adds the Reporter, aiming a shot at the political calamity howlers, "any attempt to present the situation in a different light arises either from ignorance of the actual facts in the case, or can be traced to sinister purposes."

As a sample of the general prosperity the Reporter refers to the last statement of the status of mill stocks in the important industrial center of New Bedford, Mass., since January. These mills have generally paid two quarterly dividends this year. When the tide of prosperity turned, says the Reporter, orders began to come in at the reduced prices, demand increased, the rates for raw material were higher after an interval, values of the product advanced from 5 to 10 per cent., so that in the spring of the present year, while nominal values all around were much under teh inflated values of 1892, a return to which, as the Reporter says, the best sense of the business community is neither anticipating nor desiring, probably never before in the history of the place was there a louder hum of industry, a larger conversion of materials into goods, a larger employment of help, and probably at no previous time in its history has manufacing been less expensive or labor been able to live decently more cheaply. In other words, probably at no previous time in the history of the industry have the saving possibilities of all concerned been greater.

This is probably equally true of every industry in the country.

POLICEMAN SHOT.

While Attempting to Arrest Four Men He Received a Ball in the Kidneys.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 27.—Patrolman John J. Daly, of the southern police district, was shot and fatally injured with his own revolver early Monday morning, at the corner of Charles and Conway streets. The officer attempted to arrest four men who were disturbing the peace. One of them seized Daly's stick and dealt him a severe blow on the head. The policeman then drew his revolver, but before he could use the weapon Dougherty wrenched it from his hand and sent a bullet through his back. The report of the pistol summoned aid and Dougherty and two of his companions were arrested. Daly was removed to the Maryland University hospital, where it was found that the bullet had perforated the kidneys. Little hope is entertained for his recovery.

TERRIBLE DEATH.

Novel Method of a Young Woman to End Her Existence—Her Mother Fatally Burned.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Aug. 27.—News was received here Monday detailing the horrible death of Miss Mary Leahy, 25, at Elsden. She secured some saleratus, which she rubbed over her body, and then set herself on fire. She was discovered by her mother, who was frightfully burned in attempting to extinguish the flames. The victim lived two hours suffering untold agony. A strange fatality exists in this family, as this makes the eighth member who has met a violent death. The act is attributed to the death of her brother, who was shot and killed a few days ago.

PARIS, Aug. 27.—Thirty anarchists were arrested on suspicion in connection with the explosion of the infernal machine, by the explosion of which M. There is as yet no clew to the origin of the machine but it is believed to be the work of an individual anarchist rather than that of an organized band.

Until further notice the superintendent of branch agencies for the Dayton Sanitarium and Medicine Case Co. will be at the Hotel Portsmouth parlors for the purpose of exhibiting and explaining free of charge, their new Household Medicine case, containing medicine for all family ills, together with a valuable treatise explaining the symptoms of all diseases, their causes, and the mode of successfully treating them without the necessity of calling in a physician. You may avoid the expense of so doing, as our long experience has proven beyond a doubt that the people can handle cases of sickness quite successfully with our medicines at hand. This is a matter that personally interests us all, as we all get sick sometimes. Wherever these cases have been introduced their use has been met with marvelous success. SAW WALLER.

Minister Eustis' Son and Mr. Alexander Call on Him.

Strict Prison Rules Were Not Observed During the Interview.

The Ex-Consul's Health Has Improved Since His Transfer to France—Waller Furnished Them With an Account of the Events Leading to His Arrest.

Paris, Aug. 27.—M. J. Eustis, son of the American Ambassador, and second secretary of the embassy, and Mr. Alexander, counsel of the embassy, returned Monday from Clairvaux, whither they went to see John Waller, American consul to Madagascar, who was sentenced by a court martial to a long term of imprisonment on conviction of having informed the Hovas, with whom the French are at war, of the movements of the French. They were allowed to converse with Waller practically alone. The rules of the prison provide that no prisoner shall see any visitors except in the presence of an official. In this case, however, the rule was not observed, the guard remaining in the next room to that in which Mr. Eustis saw Waller. The door between the rooms was left open, but practically the conversation was private.

Waller's health has improved since his arrival in France as a prisoner from Madagascar. He was suffering upon his arrival from the effects of the fever that prevails in Madagascar. He seemed to be greatly cheered by the visit of Messrs. Eustis and Alexander, and by their assurance that the United States government would inquire thoroughly into his case.

When asked if he had any complaint to make regarding his treatment in prison, Waller replied:

"No, but I would like to have a chair and a table."

This, however, according to the rules governing prisoners to solitary confinement, is not allowed.

The American embassy will apply to the foreign office for the relaxation of the rules in Waller's case, in order that he may be supplied with a chair and table.

Waller occupies a wainscoated cell that is reserved for political prisoners. He is allowed an invalid's diet; that is, whatever he requests in the way of meats or vegetables is furnished to him.

He furnished Messrs. Eustis and Alexander with a full account of the events which led to his arrest, and also with the details of the proceedings of the court-martial which convicted and sentenced him. This statement has been transmitted to the state department at Washington.

REFORMS IN ARMENIA.

Three British Vessels Have Reported Off Mitilene—Lord Salisbury is in Earnest.

London, Aug. 27.—The Chronicle publishes a dispatch from Constantinople saying that Shakir Pasha, first aide-de-camp to the sultan, who, in June last was appointed imperial commissioner, in connection with the reforms in Armenia, started in great haste on Sunday by a special steamer for the scene of his duties. Three British warships have been reported off Mitilene. Their approach explains Pasha's hasty departure. The presence of a fleet will alone convince the sultan that Lord Salisbury, the British prime minister, is serious in his insistence for reforms in Armenia.

Bull-Fighting in Colorado a Failure.

Colorado Springs, Col., Aug. 27.—The last of the much advertised and notorious bull fighting scheduled Monday afternoon at Gillette failed to materialize. The large majority of the people do not approve of these barbaric exhibitions, and they demonstrated it by the extremely small attendance which was present Monday, only 200 people being in attendance. Only one bull was driven into the arena Monday, and his hide was simply pierced by a few decorated banderillie marks and then driven out, no fight taking place. Monday night all the backers and fighters were under arrest. The affair has not been a financial success.

JOHN M'BRIDE.

Affidavits Filed Against Him Making Sensational Charges.

Youngstown, O., Aug. 27.—Richard McNeil, who has been prominently identified with the coal miners, and who has held a number of official positions in coal miners' organizations, Monday filed an affidavit in which he makes sensational charges against John McBride, ex-president of the United Mine-workers of America.

McNeil alleges that while at Columbus attending a conference with the coal operators on July 6, 1894, McBride said: "I am glad to get through. I want to go to Chicago and enter the Hocking-Valley strike."

Just then an operator said:

"'I'll give you $2,000 if you settle that strike,' and McBride turned to me and said: 'Did you hear that?'"

McNeil says that the cause of the miners working at low wages is due to the conduct of their officials, and that he has been urged by the men to make this charge public.

NO FREE COINAGE.

Ex-Gov. Campbell Says He is Not in Favor of It.

Massillon, O., Aug. 27.—Ex-Gov. Campbell was asked Monday night to harmonize his expressed willingness to "chance it" on a free silver platform four years ago and his candidacy this year on a gold standard platform.

He met the inquiry as follows: "I did not favor free coinage by the United States alone four years ago, nor do I now, although I am an international bimetalist. What I said four years ago was that I would take the chances of election upon the platform as I found it."

IN PRISON

A Visiting Swede Met His Countryman and Old Time Friend.

A Rather Remarkable Coincidence—The Friends Chum Together in the Same Cell—Milton Sparks Creates Quite a Little Disturbance—Other Police Pickups.

Frank Cahlman, a great big jolly Swede, arrived in Portsmouth yesterday. In his native land he had known as a boy one Peter Anderson, and he learned recently that Peter was hanging out in these parts somewhere. His first thought was of course to look up his old time friend. After an unsuccessful search yesterday it was a most remarkable coincidence that threw them together last evening. In his search Frank found numerous specimens of fire water and along in the evening he became rather 'leery. He ended up with a patrol ride with officer McFarland as chaperone. He had scarcely settled down in his cell when the prison door opened to admit another unfortunate. Frank could scarcely credit his eyes when they informed him that the new arrival was his old time friend, Peter Anderson. The old friends were permitted to occupy the same cell and they spent the night talking over old times. No meeting could have been happier. They chatted away as pleasantly as if comfortably located in some cozy parlor. This morning Frank said he drunk only four glasses of beer last night, but as it didn't take much to make him drunk he guessed he was guilty. He was fined $5.80. Peter maintained a dignified silence when the mayor asked him to plead to the charge of intoxication, but when His Honor translated the charge into drunkenness, Peter said he guessed yes. He got $4.80. Frank had $1.95 in cash and Peter had $2 50, so they will pound stone together for a few days at least.

Al Kountz, an old timer, answered to the charge of drunk and disorderly. He got $10 and costs, in all $13.80 to pound out of the stone pile.

Milton Sparks, a barber at the corner of Second and Madison streets, created lots of excitement in that vicinity about noon today. He was fearfully and awfully drunk, and wanted to go up street, but his wife insisted on his remaining in the house. Their talk and scuffling gave passers-by the impression that there was wholesale murdering going on inside. Sparks attempted to get his revolver from a wash stand drawer, but Mrs. Sparks held him. The gun slipped out on the floor, which added a little to the excitement, but there were no shots fired and no blood shed. Sparks is as dead as a log this afternoon, and if aroused by tomorrow will answer to a charge of disorderly conduct.

Doc McCormick playfully slapped a man on Front street last evening, for which he was fined $4.80 this afternoon.

IN JUSTICE FOSTER'S COURT

J. Arbogast Will Answer to the Charge of Keeping His Saloon Open Sunday—Some Rioters Also on Trial.

Justice J. R. Foster, the Carey's Run judge, was in the city today on business. The justice has much business on hand just now. Besides several very interesting civil suits, of which the 'Squire says nothing, there were two criminal cases filed this morning. The first is the state of Ohio vs. J. and Maggie Arbogast, keeping saloon open on Sunday. The warrants were served today the case will be for hearing tomorrow at 2 o'clock.

Another case to be heard at the same hour tomorrow is state of Ohio vs. S. McGraw, Frank and James Matthews and Richard Flannery. They are charged with riot, assault with intent to kill, whitecapping and sundry other offenses committed against one Henry Gerding, of the West Side. Gerding was going home last Sunday night, when he met the rioters near the infirmary. They were somewhat under the influence of liquor and proceeded to have some rough sport out of Gerding. With big knives they finally chased him across a cornfield for a half mile or so. Gerding filed charges against them yesterday and the case will be up for hearing tomorrow.

THE THIRTY-THIRD O. V. I. REUNION

Will Be Held in Portsmouth Oct. 14th and 15th—Great Preparations Will Be Made for a Big Time.

The surviving members of the Thirty-Third Ohio Volunteer Infantry will hold their annual reunion in this city October 14th and 15th, the thirty-fourth anniversary of their departure for the fields of war. A number of tents have been engaged from Columbus and will be pitched on the old fair grounds, the very spot where the regiment was mustered into service.

Captain Waddle, of Columbus, Col. Sikes, of Huntington, Col. Montgomery, of Gallipolis and Captain Louellan of Indiana will be on hand to talk over the old days. Arrangements are being made for a reproduction of the battle of Lookout Mountain in which Company H and the various Sons of Veterans camps will participate. An attempt will also be made to get together all who had part in the Andrews raid in Georgia. Conductor Fuller will also be present.

W. S. GILLILAND DEAD.

The Ex. U. S. Gauger Dies at His Home in South Webster Monday Evening.

Word was received in the city this morning that Mr. W. S. Gilliland, who held the position as gauger at this point under Collector Jas. W. Newman, had passed away at his home in South Webster late last evening. Mr. Gilliland had been suffering for more than a year past with consumption—the same dread disease having carried off his wife and oldest daughter within the past few years. Mr. Gilliland was about sixty years of age. He was a carpenter by trade, and was for some time connected with the Webster Fire Brick Co. He leaves four children, two boys and two girls. Mr. Gilliland was a man of good qualities and generally respected by those who knew him.

A REMARKABLE COINCIDENCE.

A Father Thought to Have Been Dead a Quarter of a Century Discovered in a Peculiar Manner.

Floyd McCormick, Esq., had a rather unusual and interesting experience with a client and his case a short time ago. Several weeks ago a stranger entered Mr. McCormick's office and stated that he wished to retain him to settle up an estate. The client said that he thought there was something due him from his father's estate. He had heard nothing of his father since the war, but felt pretty sure that he was dead, for if living now he would be about 105 years of age. He gave the lawyer the address of his father when he last heard from him. Mr. McCormick wrote to a lawyer in the place, a small town in Texas, to inquire as to the old man's death, and asking for information concerning the estate if any. He suspected at the time that the old man had undoubtedly been dead so long that it would be difficult to get the desired information. He was consequently very much surprised to receive a reply a few days ago, stating that the man inquired for had died only last week and left several hundred acres of land and other property. The question now is, what influence led the son after thirty years to take this step just at this opportune time towards securing his interest in the estate.

HE GOT SHAVED FIRST.

And Then When All Was Well He Took His Girl to 'Squire Waller and They Were Married.

Benjamin F. Weaver, of near Wheelersburg, this state, and Miss Anna Greenslate, of Greenup county, Ky., were, after some trial and tribulation, united in marriage this morning by 'Squire Wm. Waller, at his office. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the mother of the blushing bride and a brother of the groom.

The prospective groom came to Portsmouth several days ago and endeavored to secure a license, but was compelled to return home disappointed, as the girl was but 17 years of age. Yesterday the young lady's papa called on Judge Osborn and gave his consent, returning home with the longed for document, and this morning the young couple came to this city to have the ceremony performed. Some delay was occasioned by the fact that the groom had forgotten to get shaved. After much parleying the young man left his party comfortably installed in some easy chairs at Reilly's book store while he went out to have the hair removed from his face. And then they were married. The couple then put in the morning taking in the sights of the city, returning home on the C. & O. at noon. The bride was a very handsome young woman, becomingly gowned in white.

AT SEEL'S.

A Gay Party of Young People Enjoyed a Delightful Dance Last Evening.

About twenty-five couples danced at Seel's parlors last evening in honor of Miss Sarah Cotter and Miss Annie Cloran, of Ironton, and Miss Patience Doland, of Columbus. Music was furnished by the Washburn Mandolin and Guitar club. Miss Cotter, who is a talented elocutionist, recited several beautiful recitations. A lunch was served at a late hour.

Following were present: Misses Margaret McMahon, Mayme McMahon, Anna Timmonds, Anna Conly, Mayme Doyle, Carrie Miller, Clara Schuler, Julia Healy, Mary Word, Margaret Barry, Mame Barry, Annie Conroy, Jennie Ridenour, Amelia Ridenour, Hattie Ridenour, Louis Collins, Mary Collins, Miss Lansing, Messrs. John McMahon, E. K. Walsh, H. J. Loder, Ernest Stewart, Louis C. Schuler, Wm. Maier, Charles Helten, Mart McMahon, Henry Stillmaker, O. B. Henderson, James Dunn, James Barry, Will Sheets, Joe Smith.

CONSUMPTION

Claims Another Victim in the Person of Mrs. Emma Hacquard, of West Third Street.

Mrs. Emma Hacquard, a widow living at 114 West Third street, died this morning about nine o'clock. She had been suffering for six or eight months with consumption complicated with heart trouble. Her illness made her very despondent. Deceased was a sister of the late Engineer Barber, and was for a time employed at the Portsmouth Turned Shoe Co. She leaves two small boys.

A Case for the Board of Health.

There has been considerable talk in the East End because a gentleman named Hubbard, of Brewery hollow, in whose family there is a bad case of scarlet fever, is often in the city coming in contact with different people. East Enders fear that the disease may be spread about and think the board of health should take measures to keep Mr. Hubbard in the house.

Back from the Old World.

THE INSTITUTE.

Not a Very Large Attendance This Year, for Some Reason.

Prof. Mulford, of Mechanicsburg, and Dr. Bennett, of Piqua, Instruct the Busy Pedagogues Again—What's the Matter with Our Institutes?

It is a lamentable fact that interest in our county teacher's institutes is falling off year by year. Such rousing times as the pedagogues were wont to have a few years ago are now unknown. Why is it? Who is at fault? Presumably the teachers themselves for they are the ones to make the institutes profitable. By their attendance and interest in the session they can make the week what it should be, the most profitable one in the whole year. Last year the attendance was not large and this year it is not much better. The instructors are both able and experienced educators but the practice of engaging the same instructors for two consecutive years is not to be too strongly indorsed. The teachers want new ideas. They must have new ideas in this busy world or fall by the wayside. A personal invitation should be sent to every teacher in the county by the executive committee, urging them to attend the institute and programs sent them so that they may prepare themselves for a general discussion of all topics that may be brought up. The old time interest in these institutes could be revived by a little extra effort. By all means put a little bit more enthusiasm in the work.

The attendance at Monday's session was very small, only about thirty being present. Dr. Bennett of Piqua, and Prof. Mulford, of Mechanicsburg are the instructors. The program yesterday was quite short. Prof Mulford gave a very instructive and entertaining talk on theory and practice. Dr. Bennett followed on the subject of reading. The doctor told of his youthful experience along this line when the alphabet was as meaningless to him as so much Choctaw. There were no exercises in the evening.

This morning's session opened with an increased attendance. Prof. Mulford discussed physiology treating principally of the muscles. Grammar was taken up by Prof Bennett and the common errors and dangerous mistakes in this important branch were skillfully pointed out. He warned the teachers especially to beware of slang and affected speech.

Prof. Mulford then took up literature, the theme so ably presented last year by Dr. Bennett. He showed great familiarity with the subject, and urged the importance of a more active interest in this rich field of study.

Those registered up to this morning were: C. H. Rheinoehl, J. A. Fulton, J. S. T. Lavender, H. Adams, W. B. Cuppett, R. H. Dodds, Chas. R. Loomis, Minnie Brookhart, E. Grace Cross, Anna Keefe, Mary Ryan, Jessie Courtney, Ella M. Phillips, Mamie Jackson, Madge Shope, Mary Hollenbeck, Emma E. Tracy, Minnie B. Burns. Verna E. Pyles, Josie Jordan, N. L Jackson, L. E. AN OLD LADY DEAD.

Mrs. Nancy Means Passes Away at the Home of Her Son on the West Side Yesterday.

Mrs. Nancy Means, an aged lady, who has been making her home with her son-in-law, David Kirk, on the West Side, died yesterday evening at 6 o'clock. Her death was caused by chronic diarrhœa. She was 71 years old and leaves four children—Mrs. John Kirk, who lives in southern Kentucky; Mrs. Dave Kirk and Mrs. John McKane, of the West Side, and Mrs. Henrietta Rogers, of this city.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the Farmers, hotel on Market street, that being the home of her daughter. Remains will be interred in Greenlawn cemetery.

MAY HAVE TO PAY.

Some Members of the Agricultural Society Insist on Payment for Use of Grounds.

The board of directors of the agricultural society are divided on the question of charging for the use of the fair grounds for ball games and other similar events. Some members of the board insist that they should be paid for the use of the grounds, while others are willing to let it out gratis. The latter faction is designated as the street railroad faction, most of them being interested in the road and any event at the fair grounds benefiting them in that manner. However, a member of the board will hereafter be at the grounds whenever a ball game is advertised and insist on payment for the use of the grounds.

PORTSMOUTH BOULEVARD A GO.

Commissioners in Special Session Considering It—Real Estate Transfers, Mortgages Released, Marriage Licenses.

The county commissioners are in special session today considering the matter of the Portsmouth boulevard. They have granted the petition for the road, conditionally, and it is probable that it will be built. The proposed road runs from the Catholic cemetery pike across to Captain A. B. Cole's place, a distance of about one mile and will not only be a great convenience but will make a beautiful drive. The right of way has not been secured through some properties, owners objecting to interferance with gardens but it is thought all these objections may be easily overcome and the road improved soon.

The commissioners viewed a portion of the road this morning, but the surveyor failed to show up, and another meeting will be held Friday when a survey of the route will be made.

A PEEPING SCOUNDREL

Is Causing Considerable Excitement in the East End—The Police on the Lookout.

Residents of Gallia and Eleventh streets near the intersection of Clay street are greatly worked up over the actions of some miscreant who hangs around their houses and peeps in at the windows, and in other ways annoys and frightens the inmates. The fellow was first noticed last Friday night when he paid a visit to the houses of John Cunningham, on Eleventh street, near Cook's grocery, and John Rigglesworth, on Gallia street. He visited the former place about 9 o'clock and was first noticed by the occupants, peeping in at a window coolly watching them get ready to retire. When he was discovered the fellow fled, only to turn up later at Rigglesworth's where the performance was repeated. The fellow was abroad again Sunday night, being seen by several parties. The indignant residents of that neighborhood have notified the police who are on the lookout for the fellow. If caught he should be given a good dose of rock pile.

QUARTERS AT CHATTANOOGA

Can Be Obtained by Visitors at the Low Rate of $2 for the Entire Stay—How to Make Arrangements.

By request of Rev. B. L. McElroy and other citizens, the following circular from the war department is given space. It will be of interest to those contemplating a trip to Chattanooga.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 7, 1895.

It appears from numerous letters received by this commission that its previous circular in regard to furnishing quarters in camp barracks has been construed to mean that such barracks will be erected without regard to the orders received, and that those desiring these quarters can obtain them upon their arrival at Chattanooga. This, however, is not the case.

As congress made no appropriation for free quarters, a plan was devised by which barracks accommodations could be provided by the citizens' committee of Chattanooga at a very low rate for all who might order such a sufficient time in advance. It is the intention to extend barracks as orders for accommodations are received. Such accommodations can not be provided under applications received after August 30, 1895.

Those who send two dollars to Captain Charles E. Muller, Chattanooga, Tenn., will receive in return a ticket which will entitle the holder to a comfortable barrack bunk for the entire time of his stay at Chattanooga, including safe storage for hand baggage and toilet accommodations. It will not be possible to furnish ladies with quarters in these barracks, or to supply meals or lunches in connection with them. It will be necessary for each person to bring his own blanket and towels. The barracks will be constructed upon the plan adopted at the last Grand Army encampment at Washington City, where a very large number of veterans were thus housed. Such structures will be erected in Chattanooga, where, within convenient distances, meals and lunches may be obtained at reasonable prices.

Communications in regard to barracks addressed to Captain Muller, who was selected by the citizens' committee to take charge of this work, will receive prompt and reliable attention.

The indications of a very large attendance at the dedication are such as to lead this commission to urge that all contemplating attendance make arrangements in advance for quarters. A citizens' executive committee, of which Captain H. S. Chamberlain is chairman, is now canvassing the city of Chattanooga to find quarters in private families for those who desire such accommodations. Full information may be obtained by addressing that committee, and assurances have been given that rates will be reasonable.

J. S. FULLERTON,
Chairman of Commission.
